Jon Jacobsen

Jon Jacobsen spoke at the Treynor Optimist Club on June 17. He said that 17 years ago he gave his first public talk here at the Optimist Club.

Jon said that both his sons received their Boy Scout Eagle Scout awards in Treynor. His daughter Hailey is 6 months pregnant and working at Camp Cedars Boy Scout camp this summer. His daughter Jamie is doing Hospice work and will graduate from college next year.

Jon is co-chairman of the Boy Scout Capital Campaign this year.

Jon is running for the Iowa House of Representatives. He talked about his experience and knowledge about Iowa issues. Some of the major issues he discussed in depth are treating people with Mental Health issues, bank robberies, taxes on inheritances, and school funding. He also briefly talked about Iowa water quality, education, agriculture, and regulations.

Kirk Vorthmann, club President, conducted the June 17, 2017 meeting of the Treynor Optimist Club.

The meeting began with humor from Marsha Underwood, Dee Guttau, Gary Guttau, Chad Guttau, and Keith Denton. Dee Guttau offered the opening prayer after the club members cited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Marsha Underwood won the 50/50 drawing and Bill Vorthmann was not present to collect the attendance prize. There were 13 members and one guest at the meeting.

Keith Denton contributed to the Youth Fund for bragging rights because his daughter sold her house and bought another one the same day. Judy Guttau contributed because she was with Mick in Washington DC, along with Cheyenne. She got a tour with Tyler Seale, Richard Vorthmann's grandson. Kirk Vorthmann contributed because putting up flags went smoothly.

Dale Willenborg celebrated his 65th birthday.

Treynor Days is next weekend. The Club will meet at St. Paul church, since the Community Center will be busy for Treynor Days. Carol Forrestall will be the speaker.

Flag pickup will be July 5.

Ken Graham, Dee Guttau, Chad Guttau, and John Klein helped with can kennel sorting this week. There were 791 bottles.

Zion Youth will receive $945.90 from the can kennel.

The state Optimist Meeting is in Council Bluffs on August 4-6. Reservations are due July 21. Members are encouraged to attend.
