

China Visit

David Miller spoke at the Treynor Optimist Club on March 30 about his visit to China. David plays drums at his church. He was team leader of a group of six youth from church going to China. They were gone eight weeks in June and July.

There are 1.3 billion people in China. David and the others visited Wuxi, a city of 5 million people. David found that the people in China do learn English in school, but mainly learn through rote memorization, so they have trouble speaking in a conversation.

There are four social classes in China:

- Merchants
- Artisans
- Peasants
- Officials

David found it interesting that they shoot off fireworks for a new business opening and for weddings.

The goal of their visit to China was to meet individual people and share the Gospel. Formal preaching and organized groups are not allowed in China. They would meet Sunday for church on an informal basis.

David will be starting Seminary in August at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky in August. He wants to get a psychology degree and a Masters of Divinity.
