Club members put up flags this week.

Meeting Minutes

Dale Willenborg opened the meeting of the Treynor Optimist Club on May 28 by leading with the Pledge of Allegiance and giving the opening prayer. Keith Denton provided jokes.

Kirk Vorthmann celebrated his 61st birthday.

Chad Guttau won the 50/50 and Marsh Underwood won the attendance drawing, but was not present to collect it.

After a short meeting, the members put up flags for Memorial Day. They put up 172 flags, including flags for people who have not subscribed yet this year, but did so in 2015.

There were 11 members at the meeting.

There will not be a meeting June 25 because of Treynor Days.

Arbor Day

On May 9, Junior Optimist students planted Oak trees at the athletic fields near Treynor High School. Master Gardeners and adult Optimist Club members assisted and organized the event.
