Treynor Music

John Klein introduced speaker Linnea Casey at the Treynor Optimist Club on September 24. She is a Student Intern in the Treynor Community School District Instrumental Music Department for grades 5 to 12.

Linnea is from Griswold, Iowa, where her mother is the vocal music instructor for grades 6-12.

Christian faith is foremost in Linnea's life. She continues to use her musical gifts of piano playing and song leading in the church.

Linnea is a student at the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls. Once her internship at Treynor is successfully completed she will graduate with a degree in Instrumental Music Education. Linnea is enjoying her time at Treynor and commented on the dedication of Treynor's instrumental music students. She is working toward learning all instruments; the flute, however, is her specialty.

Linnea concluded with a beautiful performance of an Andersen etude Adagio Patetico on the flute.
